Closures for Harrison Street Project Continued to Tuesday

CHICAGO – The Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) announced that the overnight lane and ramp closures will continue until Tuesday morning for the installation of beams for the new West Harrison Street Bridge over the Dan Ryan Expressway (Interstate 90/94). The work is part of the ongoing Jane Byrne Interchange Improvement Project.

- Between 1 and 6 a.m. Saturday, the inbound and outbound Eisenhower Expressway (Interstate 290) ramps to the outbound Dan Ryan will be closed.
- Between 11:59 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. Sunday, the two left lanes of the outbound Dan Ryan will be closed. The outbound Eisenhower ramp to the outbound Dan Ryan also will be closed during this time.
- Between 1 and 7 a.m. Sunday, there will be full closures of the outbound Dan Ryan for no longer than 15 minutes at a time. There also will be full closures of the inbound Eisenhower ramp to the outbound Dan Ryan for no longer than 15 minutes at a time during this same timeframe.
- Between 11:59 a.m. Sunday and 5 a.m. Monday, the inbound and outbound Eisenhower ramps to the outbound Dan Ryan will be closed.
- Between 1 and 5 a.m. Tuesday, the inbound and outbound Eisenhower ramps to the outbound Dan Ryan will be closed.

A detour for the ramp closures will be posted. Traffic will be directed to the outbound Kennedy Expressway (Interstate 90/94) to access the outbound Dan Ryan via the Augusta Boulevard exit and entrance ramps.

Motorists can expect delays and should allow extra time for trips through this area. Drivers are urged to pay close attention to flaggers and signs in the work zones, obey the posted speed limits and be on the alert for workers and equipment.
